

EDGE DAVAO

Serving a seamless society

RAPIDS. Maia Zhang Tingjun of Team Chain Reaction Project of Singapore brave the rapids of Sibulan River during the 2nd Mt. Apo International Boulder Face Challenge in Sta. Cruz, Davao del Sur. Tinjun's team is taking part in the event hoping to push for their advocacy campaign against human trafficking. [BOY LIM]

EDGE DAVAO

Sports
Page 14

THE Davao Summerfest sports camps, the first stage of the month-long summer sports and arts festival, will open on May 7 at various venues.

Camps in football and basketball will be staged from May 7 to 18 and will be catering to close to 4,000 children in Davao City.

The football camp will be held from May 7-11 (Batch 1) and May 14-18 (Batch 2) at the Davao Crocodile Park football fields. The camp will be supervised by Christian Ea and a team of coaches from the Davao Football Association (DFA) and Crocodile Park Football Academy.

For basketball, the camp will be staged in various venues covering the three districts of Davao City.

City Sports Development Division OIC Pocholo Elegino said the basketball camps will be handled by coaches under the Samahang Basketbol ng Pilipinas under city director Atty. Oying Melodias.

Davao Summerfest sports project head Neil Bravo said interested participants may inquire with the City Sports Development Office or with their respective barangays. Slots for the training camps will be allocated for each barangay.

The Davao Summerfest is organized by the Duaw Davao Festival Foundation as the official festival manager of the city government of Davao. The Summerfest formally opened last Friday at the Davao People's Park.

LACING UP. Maia Zhang Tingjun of The Chain Reaction Project of Singapore laces her shoe as she prepares to take the second stage of the 2nd Mt. Apo International Boulder Face Challenge race. Tingjun and her teammates joined the race to campaign against human trafficking. [BOY LIM]